

Please do not overturn NJ's Do NOT Call. Telemarketers are an invasion into my family life and the quality of the evenings with my children. We have little time as it is in our society today and the less time we have to deal with nonsense the more quality time we can spend with our families, making society better as a whole!!! I urged you to please reconsider!